

Funded by the European Union

OPEN SOCIETY
FOUNDATIONS
WESTERN BALKANS

Reform
Monitor

Reform Agenda Snapshot

(up to June '26)

Serbia

Semester funding potential: €197M

Key Findings:

6 of 21 monitored reforms expected as completed

None confirmed by the EC during the reporting semester

First performance-based payment received

Further disbursements delayed by pending EC assessments

€167.5 million disbursed

Pre-financing and first performance-based tranche received

Judicial reforms raise rule-of-law concerns

Controversial amendments delayed assessment of RGF payments

December 2026 deadlines at risk

Unfinished reforms face potential permanent loss of funding

Payment transparency improves

Payment requests published, but supporting evidence remains inaccessible

Key Recommendations:

Safeguard reform progress during elections

Finalise legislation and consultations ahead of new institutions taking office

Ensure compliance with EU rule-of- law standards

Implement outstanding Venice Commission recommendations

Restore meaningful public consultations

Avoid compressed debates and ensure inclusive legislative processes

Accelerate institutional and legislative reforms

Address staffing gaps and finalise outstanding implementation measures

Revise unattainable reform commitments

Agree measurable revised indicators with the EC through the formal amendment procedure *for more details check out our reform monitor updates

* The total semester funding potential represents the expected disbursements for reforms due in June 2026

Read the publication:

